LEYM Spiritual Formation Retreats 2019-20

Meetings as Crucibles and Incubators

Fall Retreat Weekend September 6-8, 2019

- Weber Retreat Center, Adrian, MI 1257 East Siena Heights Dr., Adrian MI 49221
weber.adriandominicans.org
- (33 miles NW of Toledo, 30 miles SW of Ann Arbor, 72 miles SE of Lansing)
- Program starts at 7 pm Friday and ends around 1 pm (after lunch) on Sunday. If at all possible, plan to attend for the whole time.

Spring Retreat Saturday, May 2, 2020

- Starts at 9:30 and ends around 4:30
- Would your meeting be interested in hosting?

Traditionally, LEYM's Spiritual Formation program has offered companionship and resources to support and hear about each others' individual growth in the Light. This year, we intend to take another step along the path. With Joann Neuroth's leadership, we'll explore how Meetings can undertake CORPORATE spiritual development in order to create "crucibles" where individuals can better hear and discern their part in God's call to heal the world ... and "incubators" where the gifts we need to answer that call are honed, honored and supported.

Between the Fall and Spring retreats, Monthly Meetings organize bi-monthly meetings of local participants – usually using one of the sessions to discuss a reading and the other to share spiritual journeys and discuss whatever corporate spiritual practice the group has decided to experiment with.

This year, two books are suggested:

Brian Drayton's On Living With a Concern for Gospel Ministry, Second Edition

Elizabeth O'Connor's Eighth Day of Creation
